THE I.B.A. BOYS LEAGUE

The IBA Boys League seeks to instill an appreciation for the game of basketball and its fundamentals while promoting ideal of good sportsmanship and fair play among its participants. To that end, the IBA Boys League will administer a non-profit youth athletic program co-sponsored by the City of Irving.

WHO CAN PLAY?

7 & 8 year olds
9 & 10 year olds
11 & 12 year olds

Players' age is as of August 1, 2009. Six year olds, who have started the first grade, may play in the 7 & 8 year old age group, but only with the consent of the HEAD COACH.

HOW ARE TEAMS FORMED?

Coaches can recruit players who live or attend school in Irving or the surrounding areas. If a player has previously played in the I.B.A. and wishes to return, they must play for the team they previously played for unless they have sat out 2 complete seasons. Last year players are not free agents. They must play with the team they played for the previous season. New players not registered to a team will go into a player draft. COACHES WILL CONTACT ALL PLAYERS ONCE ASSIGNED TO A TEAM.

WHAT DO I NEED TO PLAY?

A pair of non-marking basketball shoes with a non-sliding sole.
